16 ELIN SPELLMAN, on behalf of herself CASE NO: C-05-00568-SBA
17 and all those similarly situated; ORDER GRANTING SUMMARY
18 Plaintiff, JUDGMENT

19 vs.

20 HUMBOLDT COUNTY, HUMBOLDT
21 COUNTY SHERIFF GARY PHILP, IN
22 HIS INDIVIDUAL AND OFFICIAL
23 CAPACITIES, HUMBOLDT COUNTY
24 SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT,
25 HUMBOLDT COUNTY SHERIFF'S 26 DEPUTIES DOES 1 THROUGH 50, AND
ROES 1 THROUGH 20, INCLUSIVE,

Defendants.

1 Defendants' motion for summary judgment came on regularly for hearing on May
 2 23, 2006. Mark E. Merin appeared on behalf of the plaintiff and Mitchell, Brisso,
 3 Delaney & Vrieze, by Nancy K. Delaney, appeared on behalf of the defendants.

4 Having considered the papers filed and arguments of counsel, and good cause
 5 appearing,

6 IT IS ORDERED as follows:

7 The Humboldt County Sheriff's Department is not a proper defendant as it is 8 merely a department of the County of Humboldt. Vance v. County of Santa Clara, 928
 9 F.Supp. 993, 996 (N.D. Cal. 1996), quoting Stump v. Gates, 77 F.Supp 808, 816 (D.
 10 Colo. 1991).

11 The County of Humboldt, sued herein as Humboldt County, and Humboldt
 12 County Sheriff Gary Philp have presented uncontroverted evidence and plaintiff has 13 conceded that the County's written policy with respect to strip searches meets and 14 exceeds constitutional standards. (Declaration of Ciarabellini and Exhibit B to 15 Declaration.) Specifically, policy F-009 provides that:

16 "All strip searches and visual body cavity searches will be conducted based 17 on the need and within legal limitations to maintain security and to prevent 18 the introduction of weapons and contraband into the facility. Arrestees will 19 not be arbitrarily subjected to unnecessary strip or body cavity searches."

20 Nor is there any evidence presented of an unconstitutional de facto custom or 21 policy, as plaintiff's account, even if believed, is not sufficient to establish this, or to raise 22 a triable issue of fact in this regard. A single incident does not establish a custom or 23 practice for purposes of a Monell claim. City of Oklahoma City v. Tuttle, 471 U.S. 808, 24 823-24 (1985) ("Proof of a single incident of unconstitutional activity is not sufficient to 25 impose liability under Monell . . ."). Municipal liability may be established with a 26 showing of a "long standing practice or custom which constitutes the standard operating procedure of the local government entity." Jett v. Dallas Indep. Sch. Dist., 491 U.S. 701,

1 737 (1989). The custom must be so “persistent and widespread” that it constitutes a
 2 “permanent and well-settled [municipal] policy.” Monell v. Dept. of Social Services, 436
 3 U.S. 658, 691 (1978); Trevino v. Gates, 99 F.3d 911, 918 (9th Cir. 1996); Gellette v.
 4 Delmore, 979 F.2d 1342, 1346-47 (9th Cir. 1992). The absence of any similar complaints
 5 negates any inference to be drawn from plaintiff’s account of events that such a custom
 6 or practice existed, or was widespread.

7 There is no basis for liability as to defendant Sheriff Philp in the absence of 8 evidence of an underlying constitutional violation. Further, liability may be imposed on a
 9 supervisor under Section 1983 only if (1) the supervisor personally participated in the 10 deprivation of constitutional rights or (2) the supervisor knew of the violations and failed 11 to act or prevent them or (3) the supervisor implemented a policy “so deficient that the 12 policy itself is a repudiation of constitutional rights and is the moving force of the 13 constitutional violation.” Redman v. County of San Diego, 942 F.2d 1435, 1446 (9th Cir.
 14 1991), cert. denied, 502 U.S. 1074 (1992); Hansen v. Black, 885 F.2d 642, 646 (9th Cir.
 15 1989).

16 It is uncontested that defendant Philp did not participate in the alleged strip
 17 search of the plaintiff, know of the alleged strip search or fail to prevent it, or implement
 18 a constitutionally infirm policy that was the moving force behind the alleged wrongdoing.

19 Accordingly, the County of Humboldt and defendant Philp are entitled to 20 summary judgment as to plaintiff’s Section 1983 claim.

21 Plaintiff’s state-law claims fare no better.

22 Plaintiff’s claim for violation of California Penal Code § 4030 fails as a matter of 23 law because, as discussed above, County Policy F-009 sets forth the required “reasonable
 24 suspicion” standard for strip searches. There is nothing in the policy that is inconsistent
 25 with the provisions of Section 4030.

26

1 Plaintiff's claim under California Civil Code § 52.1 must also fail as a matter of
 2 law. This statute requires that plaintiff establish an underlying violation of a
 3 constitutional or statutory right. As discussed above, no such violation can be established
 4 as a matter of law.

5 Finally, plaintiff's claim for "invasion of privacy" under the California State
 6 Constitution is without merit. The common law tort of invasion of privacy "requires the 7 actionable disclosure be widely publicized and not confined to a few persons or limited
 8 circumstances." Hill v. National Collegiate Athletic Assn., 7 Cal.4th 1, 27 (1994). No 9 facts have been presented in this case which would support an actionable claim for 10 invasion of privacy under this standard.

11 Accordingly, defendants County of Humboldt and Gary Philp are entitled to 12 summary judgment as to all claims set forth in plaintiff's complaint. Plaintiff's complaint
 13 is hereby ordered dismissed, and the clerk is directed to close the file.
